The CyberDiplomat is a technology & cybersecurity venture located in India & United States, serving clients globally. We provide services and solutions dedicated to securing your business, institutions, and even individuals to ethically and effectively use technology to maintain a culture of respect & purpose. In addition, we work to advocate a cyber policy that ensures a healthy ecosystem enabling best practices.

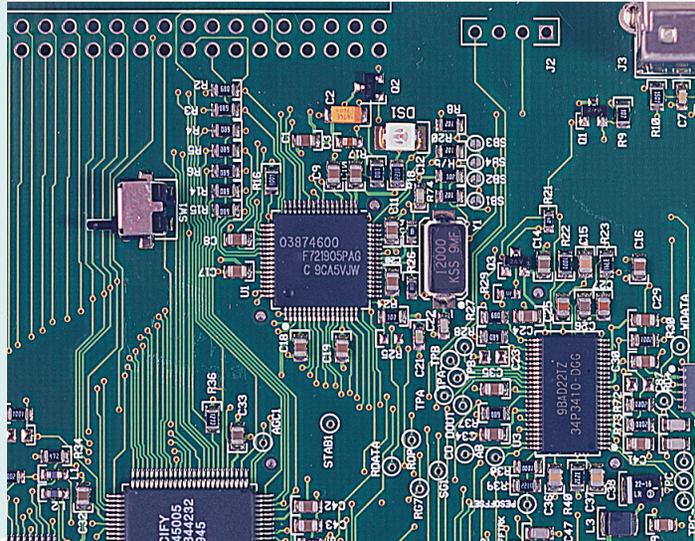

CAPACITY BUILDING & TRAINING

We provide consultancy, technical support, and services - including training to deliver cybersecurity capacity-building solutions. We enable technology proliferation while mitigating risks.

We offer a range of courses, workshops, such as cybersecurity for drones, cybersecurity for telecommunication infrastructure, cybersecurity for infrastructure, and a course on blockchain and cryptocurrency.

We provide research, insight, and intelligence on cyber-related issues. Our insights and report provide a holistic thought leadership that enables intelligent decision-making.

WE ARE THERE TO SERVE YOU

- If you want cybersecurity services and solutions - We are there!
- If you need help in case of a cybersecurity crisis - We are there!
- If you're an NGO and wish to collaborate for intelligence gathering - We are there!
- If you are a school or a college, or any educational institution seeking assistance and guidance on cyber-related issues - We are there!
